MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Briefing for Senator Glenn and Staffers

25X1

1. David Low, [redacted] (ONESA), and I met on Tuesday, 31 July with Senator Glenn, and Staffers Carl Ford and Bill Ashworth (Senate Foreign Relations Committee) and Leonard Weiss (Senate Governmental Affairs Committee). We were accompanied by [redacted] Office of Legislative Liaison. The meeting was requested by Glenn, in order to prepare him for a meeting to follow with Ambassador Richard Kennedy and Ambassador Hinton, Ambassador to Islamabad, and was to cover the Pakistan nuclear program and Pakistan/Afghanistan issues. 3. Following the Pakistan briefing there was wide ranging discussion of the proliferation issue, and Glenn led us through a brief country by country update, covering current status and near-term capabilities. He was interested in which countries might seek to develop thermonuclear weapons, and he expressed particular interest in what [redacted] were doing. The
